

IN AWE LOOK AROUND YOU

Kathryn B. Myers

K.B.M.

1. In awe look a-round you, the earth is de-clar-ing God's glo-ry, His mer-cy, His
2. Mi-nute-ness of a-tom and cos-mos un-end-ing At-test to om-nip-o-tence, 3. "Re-mem-ber the Sab-bath," our God is com-mand-ing, Re-fresh-ing, re-stor-ing our lim-it-less car-ing. His right-eous-ness glows in the work of His hand; His ev-er at-tend-ing, In or-dered de-sign, with un-chang-ing con-cern, The minds are de-mand-ing. The Sab-bath was made for the wel-fare of man, Cre-Spir-it un-veils where doubt's cur-tain is spanned. Be-hold the safe wings guard-ing might-i-est oak and the ti-ni-est fern. Con-si-der the li-ly, the at-ed to crown His Mag-nif-i-cent Plan. How best to re-mem-ber and chick-ens in hid-ing; The ant which is wise in it's way of pro-vi-ding. For rain's gen-tle fall-ing, The flight of the ea-gle, the night-wind's soft call-ing. Disclaim this re-new-ing? In praise and thanks-giv-ing and con-stant re-view-ing Of win-ter's stern sea-son, and learn from the dove the les-sons of peace and the na-ture of love. cov-er the se-crets of star, wave and tree, For God is re-vealed in the earth, sky and sea.

beau-tty ex-pressed in a flow-er or bird, Of truth as por-trayed in His Won-der-ful Word.